

COMMENTS ON TAFT'S TOUR

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2.—With the return of President Taft from his Western trip, the vanguard of Congress is reaching Washington. Many members traveled with the President when he was in their States. All are discussing the trip, and opinions differ as to whether the President has helped himself politically.

Representative Philip P. Campbell of Kansas is one of the first Republicans to return. He was in an optimistic mood.

"All through my part of the West," said Mr. Campbell, "the President was enthusiastically received. There has been a disposition on the part of a good many Republicans in Kansas and neighboring States to oppose the President; but when they saw him and listened to his frank discussion of public questions, he won many of them to his side. If the President is gloomy over the prospect, I for one see no reason for his gloom. The Democrats of Kansas are talking of Clark and Wilson for the Democratic nomination."

Representative James T. Lloyd of Missouri, chairman of the Democratic Congressional committee, and the man who led the winning fight for the Democrat last fall, is back and will be on the job here through the winter. In an interview he said:

"I have been around quite a bit since Congress adjourned, and hitherto staunch Republicans are either talking for La Follette or are saying they hope we Democrats will win."

"As I see it, Wilson, Harmon, Clark, Folk and Underwood are the most likely Democratic nominees. Missouri will settle her differences between Speaker Clark and former Governor Folk, and whichever gets the State's delegation will, I believe, have a good chance to be nominated. Governors Wilson and Harmon are strong, and Mr. Underwood should not be overlooked."

When the Korea passed through here last Saturday there was on board a shipment of 4,500,000 cigars from the Philippines. This shipment was for the smokers on the mainland. There was a large consignment of the same brand left here.

Blooded Hereford cattle sent from the mainland for the Parker ranch were on exhibition today at Bishop park, opposite the Young Hotel.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM BITTERLY ATTACKED IN COURT

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The initiative and referendum as practiced in Oregon is now before the Supreme Court of the United States for an opinion regarding the constitutionality of laws thus enacted. It has been assailed in two cases, which were recently argued before the highest tribunal. The Oregon courts sustained the law. An adverse decision by the Supreme Court would be a disastrous blow to the initiative and referendum in the United States.

One of the pending cases is based upon the enactment of a law by the people of Oregon, through the initiative, requiring telephone and telegraph companies to pay a tax of 2 per cent on their annual gross receipts. The Pacific Coast Telephone and Telegraph Company, an Oregon corporation, contests the legality of the tax, on the ground that the initiative amendment to the State constitution is "repugnant to the constitution of the United States."

The other case is brought by Frank Kiernan, a citizen of Portland, who is fighting the sale of bridge bonds authorized by an amendment to the Portland city charter, adopted through the use of the initiative amendment.

George Fred Williams, noted as a lawyer and a publicist, is among the counsel for Oregon. Missouri, through its attorney general, also has filed a brief in support of the measure, as the Missouri law providing for the initiative and referendum is a verbatim copy of the Oregon amendment to the State constitution.

The pronounced success of the great naval mobilization and review recently held at New York has led to a general suggestion in official circles that a similar event should be held every year. A number of persons interested in the development of the navy have gone further and advanced the proposition that Congress insert in the annual appropriation bill a provision for the mobilization of the naval forces at least once a year. When Secretary Meyer returns to Washington he will be asked to give his indorsement to the idea. There is little doubt that he will favor it, as he has constantly advocated the advancement of the fleet and endeavored to acquaint the people with the navy and its needs.

The enthusiasm shown by the people of New York and vicinity has surpassed all expectations of naval officers in Washington, and this show of interest, they say, is the strongest argument for the annual repetition of the present mobilization and review.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION HEARS ABOUT MOSQUITOES

Before the Territorial teachers' association yesterday afternoon Dr. Rupert Blue spoke of the methods for exterminating the mosquitoes from Honolulu. He dealt mainly with the way in which the children could be taught that the insects would be destroyed by doing away with their breeding places.

A great deal of the opposition this time, he said, came from the older people who did not even know that water was a breeding place for mosquitoes.

Dr. W. C. Hobdy told of how mosquitoes had been wiped out of other places and how Mauritius had lost all its tourist trade through mosquitoes.

Superintendent of Education Willis T. Pope said that the teachers were doing their best and were studying up the latest methods in hygiene and sanitation. There has also been a great deal of literature distributed among the pupils and they hoped that with all the step taken good results would be the finish.

Dr. Marshall and ex-Governor Carter also spoke.

Miss Ziegler was elected president of the association, Mrs. F. W. Carter, vice president and Miss Bean, of the Normal school, treasurer.

The band will play this afternoon at the departure of the steamer Lurline from the Hackfeld wharf and then will take part in the Chinese torchlight procession to start from Ala Park. There will be no evening concert at Thomas Square. Tomorrow afternoon the band will play at the Lunalilo Home for the benefit of the inmates, and there will be no evening concert at Ala Park.

The Bulletin has just received a shipment of 1912 Calendar Pads.

FEVER RESULTS IN FRUIT BAN?

According to San Francisco papers, the discovery of one case of yellow fever here resulted in a ban being placed on Hawaiian fruits even stricter than that caused by the presence of the Mediterranean fruit fly. A San Francisco paper says:

"As a result of the embargo placed on fruits shipped from the Hawaiian islands, growing out of the discovery of one case of yellow fever there, recently reported, San Francisco will be compelled to get along for some time without its usual supply of pineapples and bananas from Honolulu. The prohibition against alligator pears, papayas, peppers and mangoes has existed for several months and, with pineapples and bananas included in the list, the chief exports of the islands will be seriously diminished. It is also said the Hessian fly has been found among the growing fruit, which is an added reason for the embargo. "The one case of yellow fever reported is that of a Hawaiian, who is supposed to have been infected through the medium of the Hongkong Maru of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, which arrived at Honolulu en route to the Orient. During the voyage a passenger died, supposedly from yellow fever, and the vessel was immediately placed in quarantine."

BLIND PIG OWNER GETS FINED $100

After escaping the first time through the jury bringing in a verdict of mistrial, Manuel Silva, charged with selling liquor without a license, was yesterday fined $100 and costs in the Circuit Court. The case was heard before Judge Cooper and a jury, and the prosecution entered more evidence than on the first occasion.

Attorney Frank Andrade, who was looking after the defendant's interests, made a strong fight, but this time could do nothing. The offense was committed at a Holy Ghost festival held recently at Kailua Valley.

The following appeals were submitted and argued before the supreme court yesterday: J. G. Henriques vs. Christina Vinchaca, et al., exceptions from third circuit court, and Kaul, et al., vs. See Rank, also known as Yau Lee, exceptions from first circuit court.

Den Nadamoto is suing for maintenance from Hani Nadamoto who holds down a job as waiter in a cafe at Hilo. She states that he earns at least $60 a month and that she wants enough to support her.
